

Pattullo Bridge: July 22 Overnight Northbound Lane Closures

UPDATED: July 19, 2022

In June, crews began work to rehabilitate the Royal Avenue overpass as part of the Pattullo Bridge Replacement Project. The first stage of work will be completed from the Bridge Connector roadway under the overpass, and requires up to four overnight closures of the Pattullo Bridge in the northbound direction, as well as a closure of the Bridge Connector in New Westminster.

Overnight northbound lane closures of the Pattullo Bridge and Bridge Connector closures

Pattullo Bridge users going to New Westminster are encouraged to take the Port Mann or Alex Fraser bridges during the northbound lane closures. Northbound N19 NightBus trips will be rerouted over the Queensborough and Alex Fraser bridges, and affected customers should plan for an additional 30 minutes of travel time.

TransLink’s single lane closure for southbound traffic on the Pattullo Bridge will remain in effect; however, one southbound lane will remain open. Motorists coming from McBride Boulevard will be detoured to use the Columbia Street on-ramp. The Royal Avenue on-ramp will remain open.
