

Pattullo Bridge: Overnight southbound closures

November 24, 2025

Starting Thursday, November 27, Fraser Crossing Partners will be conducting foundation work for a new overhead guide sign along King George Boulevard where the bridge connects in Surrey. This work will take approximately three nights to complete. To complete this work, both southbound lanes on the Pattullo Bridge will be closed on the evenings noted in the table below:

Date	Time	Traffic pattern changes
Thursday, November 27	9 p.m. – 5 a.m.	Closure of both southbound lanes on the Pattullo Bridge (towards Surrey) ; closure of the southbound off-ramp to Royal Avenue
Friday, November 28
Sunday, November 30

Pattullo Bridge users going to Surrey during these overnight closures are encouraged to take the Port Mann or Alex Fraser bridges. Northbound travel will remain open but will be reduced to one lane, per TransLink's recurring overnight lane closure for drivers travelling from Surrey to New Westminster. Southbound N19 NightBus trips will be rerouted over the Queensborough and Alex Fraser bridges, and affected users should plan for an additional 30 minutes of travel time. Confirmation of closures will be communicated in advance via traffic media and posted on drivebc.ca. Please watch for signage indicating when closures and detours will be in place. Access for pedestrians and cyclists will not be maintained.
